

Drinks at Ping Pong

The ancient Tea House was a place you could visit at any time of day to drink tea and eat dim sum. Our modern world may be very different but people haven't changed much: they still like to get together over a drink or a meal and to share good times with friends. Of course we serve tea, but not just any old tea - authentic Chinese flowering green teas, some of China's finest teas and herbal infusions. Select the Jasmine Lilly, Red Amaranth or Osmanthus to see theatre in a glass. Your server will bring you one of our tall glasses with a small bundle of dried tea leaves and flowers bound together, then add hot water from a copper kettle. In a few minutes, the tea ball will blossom in your glass, and you will have an exceptionally pretty drink that's refreshing and healthy too.

We have a selection of soft drinks and juices carefully selected to complement our dim sum. However, pride of place on our drinks menu goes to our famous cocktails.

All our cocktails have been created specially for Ping Pong, and many of them feature unusual ingredients that reflect our Chinese heritage, such as lime leaves, lemongrass, ginger, coriander, coconut, kumquat and lychee. We strive to achieve a good balance between the different ingredients, flavours and colours, which allow each other to shine.

Our cocktail list is creative, affordable and fun. Our iced teas are just as inventive - even our lemonade comes with your choice of fruit purée shot for you to mix yourself. So at Ping Pong you'll find just the right drink, whatever time of day you visit. Do let us know if there's a particular cocktail or ingredient you'd like you think. You can contact us via our website.

At Ping Pong we expect our barmen to be as creative as our chefs. Our mixologists must master a comprehensive range of traditional drinks and cocktails and still have time to create new masterpieces. Check out this Ping Pong Specials - there is something for everyone.
